

AWARDS AND RECOGNITION

RAVN ALASKA BRAND

2006 - 2012

Alaska Air Carriers Association (AACA) Medallion Foundation Medallion Shield Award

The Medallion Shield Award has been presented to Ravn Alaska every year since 2006. Ravn Alaska was eligible for the Shield Award after completion of the Medallion Five Star Program, which includes: Safety Program, CFIT Avoidance Program, Operational Control Program, Maintenance and Ground Program and Internal Audit Program. This award focuses on company management, corporate safety culture and front-line employees of airlines to test each of the concepts of the Five Star Program outlined above. Only after it's determined that an airline successfully incorporates standards for each of these concepts, does the airline receive this highest award by the AACA.

Anchorage Chamber of Commerce Gold Pan Awards Business Excellence Award

After being selected as a finalist in the Business Excellence category, Ravn Alaska won the award at the 55th Annual Gold Pan Awards ceremony. Gold Pan awards are given to organizations, individuals and businesses for commitment to community service, entrepreneurship and business excellence.

Kenai Peninsula Tourism Marketing Council Outstanding Support Business in Tourism Award

This award was presented to Ravn Alaska as part of the Kenai Peninsula's Industry Appreciation Day. This award is given to businesses in the oil, gas, fishing and tourism industries to recognize those that help make the Kenai Peninsula a great place to live by being dedicated to excellence and community.

Bombardier Aerospace 2011 Airline Reliability Performance Award

In May 2012, Era Aviation, an arm of Ravn Alaska, was selected as the winner of this award for achieving the highest overall dispatch reliability and placing first overall in its product category for the North American region.
